

AADL

Alberta Aids to Daily Living

What is AADL?

Alberta Aids to Daily Living (AADL) is a Government of Alberta program that provides basic equipment and supplies to Albertans with a long-term disability, chronic or terminal illness.

AADL Policies:

1. You are an Alberta resident with a valid Alberta Health Care Card.
2. You require assistance due to a long-term disability, chronic illness, or terminal illness.
3. You have been assessed by an AADL-authorized healthcare professional to determine your eligibility for the program.
4. You must buy supplies from an approved AADL vendor.

What supplies are offered through AADL?

Alberta Aids to Daily Living (AADL) covers a wide range of supplies. Here are some examples of supplies commonly offered through AADL:

- bathing and toileting equipment
- hearing aids and FM devices
- homecare beds and accessories
- incontinence supplies (diapers and catheters)
- musculoskeletal supports
- orthotic braces
- oxygen / respiratory equipment
- patient lifters
- prosthetic devices
- specialized pediatric equipment
- speech-generating communication devices
- walkers and walking aids
- wheelchairs and accessories
- vision aids

Please visit the AADL manual and approved product lists here for more information.

For more information on AADL, please click here.